Jesus said to them,
“I tell you,
the tax collector
went home justified,
not the Pharisee;
for whoever
exalt themselves
will be humbled,
and those who
humble themselves
will be exalted.”

LUKE 18:14

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

October 27, 2019

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK.....
Also Known as Chardonnay W(h)ines!

Time for a reality check! Do you remember Fr. Mark's homily this past spring on prayer and learning HOW to pray? Did you take a copy of the book "Prayer for Beginners" that was provided in the narthex that weekend? Many did....we ran out and had to order more! So, how is your prayer life going?

The story in Luke's gospel today invites us to examine our prayer by comparing the prayer of the two men praying at the temple. Both leave the temple and probably looked the same to anyone going into the temple. One man, the tax collector, left a changed person in right relationship with God. The other, the Pharisee was not. He aimed his prayer at himself and his accomplishments rather than in awe, humility, and gratitude toward God. Yet in the eyes of his contemporaries, the Pharisee would have been considered an exemplary spiritual model. Tax collectors on the other hand, were considered suspect, dishonest, thieving people, the least respected of society. Everything the Pharisee said in his prayer was true. He fasted twice a week while only one day a year was required by the law. He tithed on everything he owned. The law required a tithe only of the produce of crops and flocks. When we examine the Pharisee's pious self-assurance through the lens of the Good News of Jesus, we can see that he missed the mark first by being so sure of his own merits and achievements, and second by failing to credit God, the source of his blessings. The tax collector did recognize God as the source of all good and asked only for God's compassion and forgiveness.

Authentic prayer produces change – not in God, but in ourselves. Raymond Brown, an eminent Scripture scholar, once said that if no change occurs as a result of prayer, then one has not really prayed. Today, as we leave this Eucharistic celebration, we will each look pretty much the same as we looked coming in. The change in us, precipitated by our prayer, will become obvious in the coming week with its ups and downs, joys and sorrows, successes and frustrations. Whether or not we have experienced change as a result of our prayer, and whether or not that change can be sustained, will depend upon the renewing power of our daily prayer and daily service of others.

Have a Blessed Week!

DAY OF THE DEAD ALTAR

Join us to pray and to remember our loved ones who have passed away.

Altar del Dia de Muertos

Acompañenos a rezar y recordar a nuestros seres queridos que han fallecido.

Please bring and drop off the photo of your love ones who passed and place them in the 'ziplock' bags, so they can be placed on the Altar in the Narthex from Oct 31st to Nov 02nd. Include your name and contact information (in both, the photo and the bag) for easy return after Nov 3rd. Please drop off the pictures in the basket located on the front desk in the hallway.

Por favor traigan y dejen las fotos de las personas amadas que hayan fallecido y coloquelas en la bolsa de 'ziplock,' así podremos ponerlas en el Altar de Muertos desde el 31 de Oct hasta el 2 de Nov. Incluya su nombre e información de contacto (en la bolsa y la foto) para poder devolverlas después del 3 de Nov. Dejar las fotos en la canasta ubicada en el escritorio de la recepción del pasadiso.

LA RELACIÓN CON DIOS

Las lecturas de hoy nos invitan a la oración, hacia una relación con Dios. Pues las relaciones se sienten más naturales cuando conocemos mejor uno con el otro. El libro del Eclesiástico nos anima a conocer mejor a Dios. En su sabiduría, este libro nos dice cómo es Dios, justo, de mente abierta, compasivo y atento. "El Señor no tarda" dice. Sabiendo que la ayuda de Dios llega en el debido momento, donde sea que la necesitemos, calma nuestros corazones y nos ayuda a confiar en el Señor. En la segunda carta a Timoteo, san Pablo demuestra su propia confianza en Dios. A pesar de las luchas agotadoras que san Pablo ha enfrentado a causa de su fe cristiana, él alaba al Señor por haberlo rescatarlo una y otra vez. El Evangelio de hoy nos acerca también a Jesús, revelando su especial amor por los pobres y humildes. Cuando Jesús cuenta la parábola acerca de las formas como los fariseos y recolectores de impuestos rezan, nuestros corazones se convierten tan gentiles como los de Cristo. Copyright © J. S. RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

Today's readings invite us into prayer, into relationship with God. Because relationships feel more natural when we know one another well, Sirach encourages us to know God better. In his wisdom, Sirach tells us what God is like: fair, open-minded, compassionate, and attentive. "The Lord will not delay," he says. Knowing that God's help comes right on time, whenever we need it, calms our hearts and helps us trust the Lord. In his second Letter to Timothy, Saint Paul demonstrates his own trust in God. Despite the grueling struggles Saint Paul has faced because of his Christian faith, he praises the Lord for rescuing him time and again. Today's Gospel draws us close to Jesus too, revealing his special love for the poor and humble. As Jesus tells his parable about the prayer habits of a Pharisee and a tax collector, our hearts long to become as gentle as Christ's.

PASTORAL CARE

Open HEARTS Ministry

The ministry focuses on mental and emotional health and wellness. The next session will be Monday October 21 from 7:00 to 8:30pm in the Parish Life Center in Room 119. If you are looking for support and resources or would like to be of support to others, please join us.

All Soul's Day Mass of Remembrance

Please come to the annual All Soul's Day Mass of Remembrance on Saturday November 2 at 10:00am to remember our loved ones who have passed away. Let us come together to celebrate the Mass and support one another in prayer. There will be an opportunity for fellowship and refreshments after Mass. "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28)

Ladies' Advent Tea

It is not too early to think about attending the tenth annual Ladies' Advent Tea on Sunday, December 1 from 2:00 to 4:30pm. All women of the parish (ages 16 and older) are invited. Please consider asking a friend or family member to come with you! Mothers and daughters are encouraged to come together. Take the opportunity to slow down, refresh your spirit and prepare your heart for Christ!

For information on any of our Pastoral Care Ministries, please contact Jolene LeRoy, R.N., Director of Pastoral Care at 331-707-5380 or via email at jolenel@olmercy.com

The Angel Gift Giving Program needs your support.

This program is supporting our parishioners that are in need of assistance over Thanksgiving and Christmas. We ask you to prayerfully consider helping our brothers and sisters. We will gladly accept any monetary donation. We then convert the money into gift cards for stores that are convenient for the families. This year we will have a Giving Tree in the narthex with tags on it indicating the various denominations that are needed. We have different allotments for various size families for dinners. Christmas gifts are allotted at $25 a person.

You can donate by using one the Angel Giving Envelopes located under the Giving Tree in the Narthex and placing it in the collection basket at Mass. Donations can also be brought into the Parish Office or mailed. If you have any questions about the program, please contact Beth at 630-303-6668.

SICK AND HOMEBOUND

Contact the Parish Office so we may help you in any way possible.

HOSPITALIZATION: If you anticipate a hospitalization or are admitted to an area hospital and would like a visit from a priest or Eucharistic Minister, please notify the parish office.

BAPTISMS: Registered parishioners wishing their child baptized must attend a parent meeting held the 3rd Wednesday of each month. Baptisms are held at 12 noon the first Saturday of the month and at 2:00 p.m. the second Sundays of the month. Baptisms are not celebrated during Lent.

WEDDINGS: The bride, groom or either set of parents must be registered members of the parish for at least six months prior to scheduling a wedding. Weddings may be scheduled no less than six months out in order to fulfill the diocesan marriage preparation requirements. Contact Diane Reiter, ext. 221.

NEW PARISHIONERS: We welcome you! Please register by attending our "New Parishioner Registration/Welcoming" meeting the last Sunday of the month at 11:00 a.m. For more info call: 851-3444, ext. 221.

HOSPITALITY: "Hospitality" weekend is held in the Parish Life Center Multi Purpose Room after all Saturday/Sunday Masses on the last full weekend of each month (excluding December).
