BLESSING PRAYER FOR MOTHER'S DAY

(Pray Before Your Meal on Mother's Day)

God of Love, listen to this prayer.

God of Holy People, of Sarah, Ruth and Rebekah;

God of holy Elizabeth, mother of John, of Holy Mary, Mother of Jesus, bend down Your ear to this request and bless the mother of our family.

Bless her with the strength of Your spirit, she who has taught her child/children how to stand and how to walk.

Bless her with the melody of Your love, she who has shared how to speak, how to sing and how to pray to You.

Bless her with a place at Your eternal dinner table, she who has fed and nurtured the life that was formed within her while still helpless but embraced in her love.

*Bless her today, now, in this lifetime, with good things, with health.
Bless her with joy, love, laughter and pride in her child/children and surround her with many good friends.*

May she who carried life in her womb be carried one day to Your divine embrace: there, for all eternity, to rejoice with her family and friends.

This blessing and all graces, we pray, descend upon the mother of our family: In the name of the father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen+

We especially honor our mother's during this time of the Coronavirus pandemic and over month long "stay at home order" for their keeping families together, children learning and occupied, in addition to all the other things they have been doing to keep families safe and healthy.

Fr. Mark and I wish all the mothers in our parish a very happy and blessed Mother's Day!

VOCACIÓN

Los católicos en los Estados Unidos pasan mucho tiempo hablando de "vocación" y la manera en que cada uno de nosotros discierne nuestra vocación en la vida. Sin embargo, en la carta apostólica de hoy, Pedro nos da la "piedra angular" de nuestra vocación, lo primero y principal en el llamado de cada uno de nosotros a raíz de nuestro Bautismo. Él describe nuestra vocación como "estirpe elegida, sacerdocio real, nación consagrada a Dios, pueblo de su propiedad para que proclamen las obras maravillosas de aquél [Cristo] quien nos llamó de las tinieblas a su luz admirable" (1 Pedro 2:9). Todos nosotros, sin importar la senda por la cual nuestra vocación de vida nos lleve, hemos sido elegidos por Dios, hechos santos, y ungidos como sacerdotes en el alto sacerdocio de Cristo por nuestro Bautismo. Todo esto, para que podamos anunciar las maravillas de Cristo. Se nos da una vocación para que proclamemos mediante el servicio, la palabra y el sacramento dentro del hogar, en el trabajo y dondequiera que nos lleve la vida. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co.

VOCATION

Roman Catholics in the United States spend a good deal of time speaking of “vocation” and the manner in which each of us discerns our vocation for life. In today’s apostolic letter, however, Peter gives us the “cornerstone” of our vocation, the description of what each of us is called to first and foremost by our baptism. He describes our vocation as “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people of [God’s] own, so that you may announce the praises” of Christ, who called us out of darkness into light (1 Peter 2:9). All of us, no matter what path our life’s vocation may take us down, have been chosen by God, made holy, and anointed as priests in the high priesthood of Christ through baptism. All of this, so that we may announce the praises of Christ. Vocation is given for proclamation at home, in the workplace—wherever life takes us—in service, in word, and in sacrament. Copyright © J. ### SAINT DAMIEN JOSEPH DE VEUSTER OF MOLOKA’I (1840-1889)

In the mid-1990s, a heavily bearded, bespectacled Robin Williams appeared on Late Night with David Letterman, whose host was clearly taken aback. Letterman inquired as to why the wild look. Uncharacteristically subdued, the usually manic comic responded that he was producing and starring in a movie about a most extraordinarily compassionate man, Damien, the Leper Priest of Moloka’i.

Some saints transcend religious and ethnic boundaries to touch the heart that beats in each human being: Francis of Assisi; Mother Teresa; and, though Williams’ film was never completed, his admiration speaks, as does Damien’s statue outside the capitol in Honolulu, of this newest saint’s universal appeal. Far from his native Flanders’ idyllic beauty and rich culture, Damien volunteered to bear Christ’s light into Moloka’i’s bleak leper colony, building decent homes, opening schools, establishing clinics, planting farms, sharing the sufferings—and the social stigma—of those with whom he delighted to identify: “We lepers,” he would proudly say when finally he contracted leprosy. Saint Damien challenges us to identify the lepers of our own day, to examine our compassion for and our identification with them.

Three Examples of Discipleship from Mother Mary

Say yes.

In Scripture, Mary's story starts with her "yes" to God. It was an affirmative with plenty of questions, but she gave her approval to God. And loo what He did with her simple fiat.

What is God asking us to say "yes" to? What is that thing that seems difficult, scary, or even downright crazy to us that God keeps placing in our hearts?

Share your joy.

How would you have reacted to carrying the Son of God? In Mary's culture, I would have wanted to hide. But not Mary. She left home to visit her cousin, Elizabeth, who was also expecting a baby boy. They embraced each other and shared the joy of the miracles taking place within them. Mary didn't keep her joy to herself. She shared it with her friend and is a courageous example for us in sharing our joy.

Make the big ask. Boldly.

When the wine ran out during the wedding feast at Cana, Mary went right to Jesus. She didn't waste time say, "Hey Jesus, I thought, um...maybe you could help? Could you? If you can't it's fine." No. She went to Him and asked Him to fix it and left Him to it. Are we that confident in our prayer? Do we bring our troubles to Jesus and then leave them at His feet, believing that He'll take care of them? What about in all aspects of our lives? Do we hang back from asking for what we really want in our relationships at home, work and with friends? Pray to Mary, the Mother of God, as she intercedes for us and hears our prayers, hopes, and dreams with bold confidence.

Walking with Mary

We have three more weeks to journey to Fatima in honor of Our Lady of Fatima as we grow closer to Jesus through Mary. Please continue to say the Rosary, be active and spend time with the Lord through prayer and taking part in the spiritual nourishment resources on the OLM website. Our goal is to accumulate 8,030 miles together from May 1 to May 31 – to celebrate on Pentecost Sunday!

If you would still like to participate – please contact Jolene LeRoy RN Director of Pastoral Care for information about the program at jolenel@olmercy.com. Let's join together to stay connected, pray the rosary and stay active to benefit our spiritual, emotional, mental and physical health!

St. Peregrine and St. Dymphna

During the month of May, attention is brought to two saints that we can relate to concerning our physical and emotional health. St. Peregrine was familiar with suffering and sickness and knew the power of divine grace helping him. At the age of sixty, St. Peregrine Laziosi suffered from varicose veins that developed into a cancerous ulcer of the right leg and was healed in 1325 before the leg was amputated. St. Peregrine was canonized in 1726 and his feast day is May 4. He is the patron saint of cancer patients and those suffering with life-threatening or chronic disease. The National Shrine of St. Peregrine is at Our Lady of Sorrows Basilica at 3121 West Jackson St. in Chicago, Illinois.

St. Peregrine Intercession Prayer: Oh great St. Peregrine, wonder worker, you were cured instantaneously of cancer by God's grace and unceasing prayer. In your gracious kindness please ask the Lord to heal (name of person) in body, mind and soul. May we then also follow you in doing his work with renewed vigor and strength. Amen.

St. Dymphna lived during the seventh century. At the age of fifteen, St. Dymphna was killed by her father who suffered from mental instability after his wife died. She was canonized in 620 and her feast day is May 15. St. Dymphna is the patron saint for those experiencing stress, anxiety or mental illness. The U. S. National Shrine of St. Dymphna is at St. Mary Parish in Massillon, Ohio.

St. Dymphna Intercession Prayer: Oh dear St. Dymphna, you have an understanding of how mental and emotional stress can be overwhelming and impact lives. Please ask the Lord to heal and comfort (name of person) in body, mind and soul. May we be inspired by your love and devotion to the Lord and be assisted by your merciful help. Amen.

Open HEARTS Ministry

The ministry focuses on mental and emotional health and wellness. As one of the pastoral care ministries of the parish, the ministry offers Hope, Empathy, Awareness, Renewal, Trust and Support. Even though we are not able to meet in person at the time of the writing of this bulletin article, support and resources are available to you.

If you are in need of support or resources for any emotional or mental health concerns, please contact Janice Hurtado Aeppli at 312-271-7872 or at olmopenhearts@yahoo.com or contact Jolene LeRoy RN Director of Pastoral Care at 331-707-5380 or at jolenel@olmercy.com.

Ways to stay connected to the parish for spiritual resources are online, Facebook and the parish app. If you have a need, there is a Meet the Need box on the website to click on and describe your need. There are resources and volunteers that are ready to meet your need such as help with groceries or a Sunshine Call from a parishioner volunteer to check in with you and pray with you. Go to olmercy.com and click on the box on the screen according to your need. You are not alone. You are in our prayers. We stand together in our faith and love of the Lord.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF Easter

MAY 10, 2020

Jesus said,
“I am the way and the truth and the life.
No one comes to the Father except through me.”

John 14:6

A SPIRITUAL LIFE IN A CONCRETE WORLD

Today’s readings describe the complexities of trying to live a spiritual life while still living in a world that demands concrete action. Acts tell us about disagreements beginning to emerge in the early Christian communities over divisions of labor. Some people are praying and preaching while others are feeding the hungry. In First Peter we are reminded that Jesus is the cornerstone. Jesus was rejected yet is the very foundation for building the community, and yet he is also a stumbling block for those who do not follow the path laid out by his life and works. In John we hear again the contrast of the spiritual and the concrete, of houses with many rooms, of truth and life. Is it surprising that the apostles and we are sometimes confused about how to live the life Jesus intended for us?

FINDING REALITY IN FAITH

The readings today describe a faith community struggling with the realities of preaching, teaching, praying, and spreading the word of God while others are concerned about putting food on the table and a roof over their heads. In Acts decisions are made about a division of labor. Some will preach and others will ensure that the community is fed. In First Peter there is talk of spiritual houses, builders, and cornerstones, of faith and stumbling blocks. In John, Jesus begins to prepare the apostles for his departure. Jesus talks about his Father’s house but the apostles want concrete answers to their questions. They want to see the Father. They don’t know the way. Jesus’ response is both spiritual and concrete. His answer is both faith and works.

FINDING FAITH IN THE REAL WORLD

The tensions within the readings are tensions we feel every day between our faith and the world in which we live. We stumble over stones that litter the way, over lies that hide the truth, even over the reality of death. We want our faith to be solid, so we can test its permanence and reality. But faith is not concrete. Faith is a living thing, a leap into the unknown. Works are concrete. The works of the apostles are what sustained them even as they struggled with their own faith. We must feed the hungry and shelter the homeless even as we speak to ourselves and others of faith beyond brick and mortar. While we live in a world of harsh realities, we must remember there are realities beyond those we see but not beyond our belief. We know that the faith born of love for others and lived out in caring for the sick and sorrowful, the hungry and homeless, the poor and imprisoned is real.
