From The Pastor's Desk...

Also Known as Chardonnay W(h)ines!

At this time of the year, parishes throughout the Diocese often experience a change in staff. OLM is no exception. It is with mixed feelings that I announce that Jean Rehmer who has worked as secretary in our Religious Education office for the past 18 years is retiring at the end of June. I say mixed feelings because retirement is a happy thing to look forward to, but Jean will be sorely missed! Jean has been a huge behind the scenes support to our staff, catechists, and leaders in the Junior High (EDGE) and High School (LIGHT) religious education programs for our parish youth and teens. Taking care of all the details for Confirmation and many other celebrations and programs, Jean has been the one to answer all your calls and questions. She has especially enjoyed meeting and working with our parish youth and teens, always offering support and encouragement to them. Jean has also worked with and coordinated the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) for the past 15 years. She has also covered the parish office reception desk and answered phones when needed. Jean has always been gracious and willing to perform any needed tasks.

Jean and her husband Deacon Phil (who retired a few months ago) have also been great witnesses to their faith. Members of OLM for 28 years, both volunteered in baptismal preparation ministry for many years. Jean also was a catechist for several years prior to employment at OLM. Both Jean and Deacon Phil have been powerful witnesses to justice and peace ministry with their commitment to Hesus House and PADS. They will continue to coordinate our Hesus House/PADS ministry at OLM during their retirement.

So, Jean, we thank you for all you have done for us at OLM and wish you all the best in your retirement!

God Bless Jean Rehmer!

Have a blessed week!

Desde el Excritorio Del Pastor

¡También conocido como Chardonnay W(h)ines!

En esta época del año, las parroquias de la Diócesis a menudo experimentan un cambio en el personal. OLM no es una excepción. Es con sentimientos encontrados que anuncio que Jean Rehmer, quien ha trabajado como secretaria en nuestra oficina de Educación Religiosa durante los últimos 18 años, se jubilará a fines de junio. Digo sentimientos encontrados porque la jubilación es algo feliz que esperar, ¡pero echaremos mucho de menos a Jean! Jean ha sido un gran apoyo detrás de las escenas para nuestro personal, catequistas y líderes en los programas de educación religiosa de la escuela intermedia (EDGE) y la escuela secundaria (LIGHT) para los jóvenes y adolescentes de nuestra parroquia. Cuidando de todos los detalles para la Confirmación y muchas otras celebraciones y programas, Jean ha sido quien ha respondido todas sus llamadas y preguntas. Ella ha disfrutado especialmente de conocer y trabajar con los jóvenes y adolescentes de nuestra parroquia, siempre ofreciéndoles apoyo y aliento. Jean también ha trabajado y coordinado el RCIA (Rito de Iniciación Cristiana de Adultos) durante los últimos 15 años. También ha cubierto el escritorio de recepción de la oficina parroquial y ha contestado llamadas telefónicas cuando era necesario. Jean siempre ha sido amable y dispuesta a realizar las tareas necesarias.

Jean y su esposo, el Diácono Phil (quien se jubiló hace unos meses) también han sido grandes testigos de su fe. Miembros de OLM durante 28 años, ambos se ofrecieron como voluntarios en el ministerio de preparación bautismal durante muchos años. Jean también fue catequista durante varios años antes de trabajar en OLM. Tanto Jean como el Diácono Phil han sido testigos poderosos del ministerio de justicia y paz con su compromiso con Hesed House y PADS. Ellos continuarán coordinando nuestro ministerio Hesed House/PADS en OLM durante su jubilación.

Entonces, Jean, ¡te agradecemos por todo lo que has hecho por nosotros en OLM y te deseamos todo lo mejor en tu jubilación!

¡Dios bendiga a Jean Rehmer!

¡Que tengan una bendecida semana!

Padre Dan

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

“Do not be afraid; just have faith.” It’s likely we’ve heard and seen Jesus’ reassuring words or even shared them with others. When I read the story of Jairus and his daughter, I thought of a man with whom I spoke recently. As his lungs failed him during a bout with coronavirus, doctors advised him to say good-bye to his wife and daughters before they placed him on a ventilator. “I was expecting to wake up in heaven,” he said, recalling the moment not as one of fear or panic, but of deep peace. In today’s Gospel passage, Jairus had that kind of “fearless faith” as well, placing his daughter’s life wholly in Jesus’ hands even as others in the crowd ridiculed him. When we pray or ask for God’s healing, we can’t know the outcome. But we can pray for the gifts of faith and courage, placing our lives in God’s loving hands.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

When I was a child, my aunt would always encourage us to make the sign of the cross when we passed an ambulance or accident scene. In her concern for the strangers at the side of the road, my aunt was giving us a lesson in compassion, which stands in marked contrast to the crowds who ridiculed Jairus as he desperately sought help for his daughter. The Church has a rich tradition of intercessory prayer, encouraging us to pray for the needs of others. Today’s readings remind me that we can share our faith by praying for others who are sick, dying, grieving, or struggling in some way. Likewise, we can ask others to pray for us, trusting that God will hear our prayers.

PRAY Do you ever offer to pray for someone and then completely forget? Try writing each person’s name on a Post-it and placing it on your bedside table. Other ideas: Pray the Rosary while driving or exercising, devoting a decade to each person; include prayers for others when you say Grace before meals; as soon as you offer to pray for someone, drop everything and do it!

Pastoral Care

Practice Sun Safety

We are spending more time outdoors to enjoy warmer weather activities. It is important to practice sun safety because skin cancer is the most common cancer in the U.S. UV exposure is the most preventable risk factor for skin cancer.

One in five Americans will develop skin cancer. The American Academy of Dermatology Association recommends the following ways to protect your skin from the sun's harmful rays and reduce the risk of skin cancer. Seek shade. Remember that the sun's rays are the strongest between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. Wear sun-protective clothing. When possible, wear a lightweight and long-sleeved shirt and pants, a wide-brimmed hat and sunglasses with UV protection. Apply sunscreen. It is recommended to apply a broad-spectrum, water-resistant sunscreen with an SPF of 30 or higher to all skin not covered by clothing.

When detected early, skin cancer is highly treatable. Perform regular skin self-exams using the ABCDEs of melanoma. It is important to contact a board-certified dermatologist if you notice any new spots on your skin or spots that are changing, itching or bleeding.

Melanoma is the most dangerous form of skin cancer. If it is "in situ", the cancer is confined to the top layer of skin and is highly curable. If it is "malignant", the cancer can spread to other parts of the body. Early detection and treatment will assist in an increased survival. Make your day in the sun safe and fun!

When it is Time to Get Help

Everyone experiences stress or goes through a difficult time. Pay attention to your body and your feelings to evaluate if you may need extra help. Some indications that you may need help are that you can't get out of bed; you feel like you can't function; nothing brings you joy; your appetite or sleep is disturbed; and/or you feel irritable all the time.

If you are experiencing several symptoms and they persist for a week or more, contact your primary care physician for evaluation. There may be a variety of reasons why you are feeling the way you are that could be related to nutrition, activity, hydration or stress. If you are looking for resources or support, please contact the Open HEARTS Ministry which is the mental and emotional health and wellness ministry of the parish at olmopenhearts@yahoo.com.

Pastoral Care Needs
