Happy Father's Day

From The Pastor's Desk...

Also Known as Chardonnay W(h)ines!

This being Father's Day, we extend a special greeting of gratitude not only to our dads, but also to our Spiritual Father, Fr. James Guarascio. Today is Fr. James' first anniversary of ordination to the priesthood. From his "spiritual grandfather" I want to tell him what a delight it has been to have him minister with me here at Our Lady of Mercy. His humor, enthusiasm for the priesthood and love for the Church has truly been an inspiration for me. He will be a great pastor.....probably within the next three years!!

We also extend this blessing to all our Father's.....

Blessed are You, Lord and Father of All life, who has given to us the gift of the father of our family. Today we honor him, and we thank You for the numerous good things that are ours because of him.

His love for us has been a sign of Your divine affection and a sharing in Your holy love. His continuous concern for our needs and welfare is a mirror of Your holy providence. And so, as we honor him, we praise You, Father of All Peoples.

Bless him this day with Your strength and holy power that he may continue to be a sign of You, our God, and a priestly parent to our family. May we who have the honor of bearing his family name do so with great pride.

May we, the members of his family, assist him in his holy duties as a parent with our respect, our obedience and our deep affection.

Bless him, Lord, with happiness and good health, with peace and with good fortune, so that he who has shared of his very life may live forever with You, his God and heavenly Father.

This blessing and all graces, we pray, descend upon the father of our family: in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. +Amen.

Desde el Excritorio Del Pastor

¡También conocido como Chardonnay W(h)ines!

Al ser el Día del Padre, extendemos un saludo especial de gratitud no solo a nuestros papás, sino también a nuestro Padre Espiritual, el Padre James Guarascio. Hoy es el primer aniversario de la ordenación sacerdotal del Padre James. De su "abuelo espiritual" quiero decirle el placer que ha sido tenerlo como ministro conmigo aquí en Our Lady of Mercy. Su humor, entusiasmo por el sacerdocio y amor por la Iglesia han sido una verdadera inspiración para mí. El será un gran pastor... ¡probablemente dentro de los próximos tres años!

También extendemos esta bendición a todos nuestros Padres.....

Bendito eres Tú, Señor y Padre de Toda vida, que nos has dado el regalo del padre de nuestra familia. Hoy lo honramos y Te damos gracias por las numerosas cosas buenas que son nuestras gracias a él.

Su amor por nosotros ha sido un signo de Tu divino afecto y una participación en Tu santo amor. Su continua preocupación por nuestras necesidades y bienestar es un espejo de Tu santa providencia. Y así, mientras lo honramos, te alabamos a Ti, Padre de Todos los Pueblos.

Bendícelo en este día con Tu fuerza y santo poder para que siga siendo un signo Tuyo, nuestro Dios, y un padre sacerdotal para nuestra familia. Que los que tenemos el honor de llevar su apellido lo hagamos con gran orgullo.

Que nosotros, los miembros de su familia, lo ayudemos en sus santos deberes como un padre con nuestro respeto, nuestra obediencia y nuestro profundo afecto.

Bendícelo, Señor, con alegría y buena salud, con paz y con buena fortuna, para que quien ha compartido su vida pueda vivir por siempre Contigo, su Dios y Padre celestial.

Esta bendición y todas las gracias, te rogamos, descendan sobre el padre de nuestra familia: en el nombre del Padre, y del Hijo y del Espíritu Santo. + Amén.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

A number of editorials, blog posts, and other commentaries of late have declared “languishing” as the “mood,” or dominant emotion, of 2021. This is not depression, but rather a series of emotions that wear away at our sense of purpose and belonging. Those who languish experience apathy and a lack of motivation, all while participating in the daily activities of life. Yes, I said to myself, that’s it exactly! After the craziness of these last 15 months ... I think these writers are on to something! Therefore, I am particularly moved by God’s providence and grace in providing an antidote to the emptiness of languishing in today’s Scriptures. In the second reading, Paul writes with such urgency that “the love of Christ impels us” to live not for ourselves, but for the sake of Christ who died for all. The word “impel” differs from “compel,” because it implies a strong moral force from within. And in the Gospel, we see that for Christians, that inner force springs from faith, a faith that can endure both the violent squalls of life and the sense of being adrift that we can’t always put our finger on. Like Paul, our faith impels us to refocus our lives on our love of Christ and others.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

It occurs to me that we Catholics have myriad opportunities to avail ourselves of those graces, and to strengthen our faith. Languishing can be replaced with flourishing, and a recapturing of the knowledge of who we belong to: the Lord. Praying for others during Mass, reading and discussing a spiritual book with a friend, volunteering at a soup kitchen or shelter, offering to help drive refugees or senior citizens to medical appointments, or participating in a young (or older) adult parish activity – these are all actions that empty us of apathy and fill us with gratitude. The pandemic has been tragic, and terrifying, and life-altering. But God remains steadfast. We will face our share of storms, but we can rest assured that Jesus is our anchor as we move forward in faith.

PRAY Feeling blah? Re-read Paul’s letter (2 Cor 5:14-17) and ask God to help you remember that you are God’s beloved – with dignity, value, and purpose. Trust that “whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come.”

Chapter 8 - final chapter Religions at the Service of Fraternity in Our World

Pope Francis, aware that religions contribute much to our world, closes his encyclical with an invitation to seek social friendship with other religious traditions. Our shared commitment to “witness to God” through word and action helps us to live with a sincere heart and recognize one another as brother and sister. Religious traditions provide the principles for a social morality rooted in justice and mercy. Francis says the Church has a responsibility to participate in the public square to work for the common good. The Church recognizes that God works in other religions and rejects nothing that is true or holy. He says we must never forget Christ's desire that all may be one and that God loves all including atheists.

Religions need to see one another as God does, with love, and that the world needs to stop supporting terrorism and have a commitment to the welfare of all. Religious leaders should be in dialogue and cooperation with other leaders. Francis says that religious freedom is a fundamental human right that must not be forgotten and he calls all to mutually respect one another's faith tradition.

In the name of freedom, justice and mercy and all persons of goodwill and all victims of violence, war or economic hardship, it is declared that people should use dialogue as the way, mutual cooperation as the means, and reciprocal understanding as the method for universal fraternity, for acting as if all are brothers.

Pope Francis ends by thanking Saint Francis of Assisi, Mahatma Gandhi, Desmond Tutu, Martin Luther King and blessed Charles de Foucauld for inspiration for this encyclical. Who is your inspiration for the work of justice and peace and what about their life and work inspires you to create a society where all can thrive?

In the Gospel today, Jesus calms the sea and then asks his disciples "Do you not yet have faith?" In our life's journey, we must all learn to believe in God's presence and to trust in his care. The ministry of SVDP helps many to trust in His care through the personal attention and assistance that is offered on behalf of our parish family when they have experienced a difficult time. Next Sunday, the last Sunday of the month, many parishioners respond to the need through their donation to St. Vincent de Paul. You may do this using the special envelope provided each month or online giving or marking your own envelope SVDP. Thank you for your generosity.
