The Feast of Our Lady of Mercy

September 25, 2022

News from P.I.T (Pastor in Training)

This weekend we are celebrating the feast of Our Lady of Mercy. As I reflect on my first assignment as pastor, I truly believe the Lord is inviting me into His school of mercy through the instruction of Our Lady of Mercy. I say it is a school because I continue to learn and be transformed by His mercy through our Mother's beautiful example.

I have encountered brokenness in my own body through various physical ailments. I've experienced brokenness in my relationships with my friends and family. I've also seen my relationship with God experience strife and difficulties. One thing that is clear; I am a person in need of God's mercy and healing.

Our Lady of Mercy is a beautiful teacher. Mary was the first to receive Jesus at the Annunciation. She was the first to hold her son and embrace him at his birth. She initiated Jesus' ministry at the wedding feast at Cana. As she stood at the foot of the cross, her heart was pierced, and she became a teacher of her son's mercy to his disciples.

When Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing near, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son!" Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" And from that hour the disciple took her to his own home.

John 19:26-27

Next week, starting on the first Saturday of October, which is dedicated to the Immaculate Heart of Mary, we will begin 7 continuous days of adoration of the Blessed Sacrament ending on the first Friday of October celebrating the Sacred Heart of Jesus. I would like to encourage everyone to consider joining Our Lady of Mercy in adoration of her Son in the Blessed Sacrament. Come spend time in silence with our Lord and enter into His school of Mercy. Sign up for adoration hours may be found online and in the Narthex after all Masses.

Our Lady of Mercy, pray for us!

Father Michael

Noticias del P.I.T. (Párroco en Formación)

Este fin de semana celebramos la fiesta de Nuestra Señora de la Merced. Mientras reflexiono sobre mi primera asignación como párroco, creo sinceramente que el Señor me está invitando a Su escuela de misericordia a través de la instrucción de Nuestra Señora de la Merced. Digo escuela porque sigo aprendiendo y siendo transformado por Su misericordia a través del hermoso ejemplo de nuestra Madre.

He encontrado quebrantamiento en mi propio cuerpo a través de varias dolencias físicas. He experimentado quebrantamiento en mis relaciones con mis amigos y familiares. También he visto mi relación con Dios experimentar conflictos y dificultades. Una cosa que está clara es que soy una persona que necesita la misericordia y la sanación de Dios.

Nuestra Señora de la Merced es una hermosa maestra. María fue la primera en recibir a Jesús en la Anunciación. Ella fue la primera en sostener a su hijo y abrazarlo en su nacimiento. Ella inició el ministerio de Jesús en la boda de Caná. Mientras estaba al pie de la cruz, su corazón fue traspasado y se convirtió en maestra de la misericordia de su hijo para sus discípulos.

Cuando Jesús vio a su madre, y a su lado al discípulo a quien el amaba, dijo a su madre: "¡Mujer, ahí tienes a tu hijo!". Luego dijo al discípulo: "¡Ahí tienes a tu madre!". Y desde aquel momento el discípulo la recibió en su casa.

Juan 19:26-27

La próxima semana, a partir del primer sábado de octubre, que está dedicado al Inmaculado Corazón de María, comenzaremos 7 días continuos de adoración al Santísimo Sacramento que finalizará el primer viernes de octubre celebrando el Sagrado Corazón de Jesús. Me gustaría animar a todos a considerar unirse a Nuestra Señora de la Merced en la adoración de su Hijo en el Santísimo Sacramento. Vengan a pasar tiempo en silencio con nuestro Señor y entren en Su escuela de Misericordia. La inscripción para las horas de adoración se puede encontrar en línea y en el Nártex después de todas las Misas.

¡Nuestra Señora de la Merced, Ruega por nosotros!

Padre Michael

FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Don't let the purple garments and fine linen throw you. We who are fortunate enough to not have to think about our daily needs being met don't have to be dressed in fancy clothing. But it would not hurt to reflect for a moment on the unsettling parable of Lazarus and the rich man. Why? As Amos reminds us in the first reading, complacency isn't an option. Perhaps one of the simplest elements of this teaching of Jesus is the fact that the name Lazarus comes from the Hebrew name Eleazar, which means "God is my helper," or "God will help." Lazarus had no one on earth to help him and so he trusted in God completely. Although this may not be easy for us to do, it is what God asks of us. This coming week, seek to know the Lord better through studying his word and seeking him in prayer more often. Allow him to walk beside you.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Who is "Lazarus" today? He could be the homeless person who smells of cigarettes and hasn't bathed in a while, or the mentally ill woman who shouts at us as we walk by. Today's readings challenge us to move out of complacency and judgment and, instead, see the poor as human beings deserving of dignity and care. Unlike the rich man in today's parable, we still have time to reorder our priorities and find ways to close the "chasm" between rich and poor. As Pope Francis said during the Mass for the World Day of the Poor in 2021, indifference is not an option. The Church "asks us not to turn aside, not to be afraid to take a close look at the suffering of those most vulnerable." Then, act. Today's psalm tells us all we need to know: "Blessed he who keeps faith forever, secures justice for the oppressed, gives food to the hungry."

ACT If you encounter someone in need on the street, consider giving away socks, a gift card to an area restaurant, or simply offer a nod and a smile. Then perhaps seek volunteer opportunities near you.

September 2022 | Memories of St. Oscar Romero arise from today's Nicaragua

In 2005, I began an extraordinary assignment in my priesthood, working and living for five years in the country of El Salvador. This small Central American country embodies and emanates the spirit of St. Oscar Romero. When I first arrived to begin my missionary work, I started learning about this martyred archbishop. Needless to say, he quickly became one of my heroes and eventually one of my favorite saints.

During the 1980s, El Salvador had plummeted into a polarized and violent civil war. When the government began killing priests, nuns and laity, Archbishop Romero began to speak against the oppression with a loud and courageous voice. He became known as the "voice of the voiceless."

Officials with this brutal government began to threaten this dauntless shepherd and told him bluntly that if he continued to preach against their regime in favor of peace and justice for all people, he would be silenced by imprisonment or even death.

Regardless of these threats, the archbishop continued to use his voice against the corruption, hatred and killings of innocent people. Then, on March 24, 1980, while Romero was celebrating Mass in a Carmelite chapel, a lone gunman opened fire on him and killed him.

After Romero's assassination, a bloody civil war continued to rage in El Salvador, in which the poor, the Catholic Church and the people were cruelly persecuted. Finally, after more than 12 years, the war formally ended in 1992 with the signing of the Chapultepec Peace Accords.

Over the years, I have taken family, friends and visitors to see the "holy sites" of St. Oscar Romero in San Salvador, including the chapel where he was martyred and his tomb. I have always thought we were visiting "historical" sites, thinking to myself, "That all happened in the past, and thank God things like that no longer happen here and in our modern world."

That overly innocent idea of mine was recently shattered, as we have been following the current persecution of the Church in Nicaragua. The secretary-general of the United Nations has indicated he is "very concerned" about the Nicaraguan government's actions against democracy, civil society organizations and the Catholic Church. A few weeks ago, the Nicaraguan police conducted an overnight raid on the main offices of the Diocese of Matagalpa.

They forcibly took and arrested several people that night, including Bishop Rolando Álvarez, who had been under house arrest. Leaders around the world have called these actions by the Nicaraguan government a systematic persecution and harassment against the Catholic Church. As I write this, Álvarez is reportedly being held under yet another house arrest, at his parents' home in the capital city of Managua.

One might wonder: Why is this government targeting and repressing the Catholic Church and its leaders? Part of the reason is the Church continues to follow the example of St. Oscar Romero by being the voice of the voiceless, especially by speaking out against human rights violations throughout the country. During his house arrest at diocesan headquarters, Bishop Álvarez posted a message on social media: "We have to respond to hate with love, despair with hope, and fear with the strength and courage given to us by the glorious and resurrected Christ."

On August 19, the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops conveyed our support of the Church and people of Nicaragua through a statement from Bishop David J. Malloy of Rockford, who serves as the chairman of the USCCB Committee on International Justice and Peace: "I express our continued steadfast solidarity with our brothers in the Nicaraguan episcopate, along with their priests and foreign missionaries, in their calling to freely proclaim the Gospel and live the faith. The faith of the Nicaraguan people, who stand in solidarity with their bishops and priests, is an inspiration for us all."

Because we are a church that embraces the ideals of justice, peace and human dignity, please join me in solidarity with our Nicaraguan brothers and sisters. Let us also work and pray for an end to persecution against the Church, as well as for the protection of religious freedom - not only in Nicaragua, but throughout the world.

Jesus stood up to read, and they handed him the scroll of the prophet Isaiah. Unrolling the scroll, he found the passage where it is written: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring the good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to prisoners and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." (Luke 4: 17-19) †

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

began on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, June 19th. On this day, the Catholic Church in the United States began the three year National Eucharistic Revival.

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has established a website for helping to distribute information about the Eucharistic Revival. On this website, you can find information about various Eucharistic talks and written documents. More importantly you can sign up for a weekly Heart of the Revival Newsletter which will send you updates and inspirational materials. You can also sign up to be a Prayer Partner. We encourage you to visit:

www.eucharisticrevival.org

which will help you to get involved in the National Eucharistic Revival (it is presented in both English and Spanish).

Around the Parish

Healing Hearts Ministry

All of us have experienced joys and sorrows, ups and downs, accomplishments and disappointments in our lives. Healing Hearts is a ministry for anyone 18 years of age or older who would like to practice self-care for their own health and wellness and would also like to reach out to others to offer healing and hope. The next Healing Hearts Ministry gathering is on Monday, September 26th from 7pm to 8:30pm in Room 218 of the Parish Life Center. Come and create a journal. Father Michael Kearney, our pastor will be joining us for our discussion and self-care activity. Please contact Janice Hurtado Aeppli at 312-217-7872 or at olmopenhearts@yahoo.com for any questions.

Respect Life

October is Respect Life Month! Please join us on Saturday, October 8, at 2-3 pm, for an outdoor Rosary for Life at the grotto on the south side of the church. Let us honor Our Lady of the Rosary and ask for her intercession that the culture of life and love may triumph over the culture of death and everyone may recognize the dignity of all human life from conception to natural death.

Also, the Respect Life Ministry invites you to stand and silently pray in the public right-of-way across from the Planned Parenthood abortion facility in Aurora on October 7, 2022. Prayer warriors are needed for one hour shifts 7 am - 4 pm to change hearts and save lives. Our peaceful prayerful public witness is needed now more than ever with the influx of abortion bound women coming from out of state into Illinois as the abortion capital of the Midwest. Please prayerfully consider signing up via <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/508054FADAC23A3FA7-olmfirst2> or please call Lisa at (630) 236-3310.

An Hour with Jesus

During the first week of October Eucharistic Adoration days and hours will be extended. We will begin and end this special week of adoration with Mass. Our opening Mass will be First Saturday, October 1st during the 4pm Vigil Mass and the closing Mass will be First Friday, October 7th during the 12pm Noon Mass. Connect with Shirley Staples at 630-815-5799 or Bonnie Ramirez 630-723-4289 for any questions. Encounter Jesus in Adoration; which day and hour will you sign up for?
