OUR LADY of MERCY
CATHOLIC CHURCH

February 26, 2023

News from P.I.T. (Priest in Training)

Perhaps you remember some of my subtle comments from my last Sunday homily, as well as my last article where I quoted from St. Justin Martyr, writing in AD 151: “We call this food Eucharist, and no one else is permitted to partake of it, except one who believes our teaching to be true and who has been washed in the washing which is for the remission of sins and for regeneration and is thereby living as Christ enjoined.” At every funeral and wedding I make a similar announcement: “If you are Catholic and properly prepared to receive Communion this day—which means you’ve been to confession within the last year—we’ll form two lines... If you’re not Catholic, I invite you to receive a blessing by crossing your arms like so because receiving Communion in our faith tradition is an outward profession of the Catholic faith and an acceptance of everything the Church teaches as being true. Thank you for respecting our religion!” Why say such a thing? Isn’t it exclusive?

Well, yes, yes it is, but with good reason. First of all, I don’t want anyone who doesn’t actually believe Church teaching to unconsciously outwardly profess what they don’t actually believe! For many Protestants, communion is an expression of welcoming and loving one’s neighbor no matter who they are. For Catholics, Communion is just that: a consummation of communion with Jesus and His Body, His Bride, our Mother, the Church. Thus, if one isn’t actually in communion with Jesus or his Church—whether by deed or belief—there’s a grave contradiction between one’s life and the meaning and content of the Sacrament.” (Feingold’s The Eucharist) St. Thomas refers to this as “lying to the sacrament.” The Church calls this “sacrilege”.

Those are strong words! Why?? Secondly, because Communion isn’t just a symbolic action: it is also Jesus Himself! It contains what it signifies. Thus St. Paul tells us: “Therefore whoever eats the bread or drinks the cup of the Lord unworthily will have to answer for the body and blood of the Lord. A person should examine himself, and only then eat the bread and drink the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without discerning the body, eats and drinks judgment on himself. That is why many among you are ill and infirm, and a considerable number are dying.” (1 Cor 11:27-29) St. Paul literally claims that people are getting sick and dying because they are receiving Communion when they shouldn’t! That’s a weird conclusion if Communion were just a symbol of God’s love for all people, but a perfectly understandable conclusion if Communion is our reception of Jesus Christ crucified for our sins.

Think of it this way: imagine a spouse who is discovered to be cheating on his wife, and then presumes to enter into the marital act with his wife without first apologizing. How insulting! You broke communion and seek bodily union without first owning your sin and seeking reconciliation?! How much more disrespectful if we do that to our infinitely good God! That’s what we do if we presume to receive Communion if we’ve committed serious sins and not first gone to the sacrament of reconciliation. This is why the Church enjoins us as one of her five precepts: “You shall confess your sins at least once a year.” (CCC 2042) Jesus wants to forgive us our sins, and He gave us a sacrament for that too! Like a good parent, He wants us to humble ourselves, take responsibility for our sins, explicitly name them and ask for pardon, and only then presume to become one-flesh with Him. There are many reasons why someone wouldn’t receive Communion at Mass—maybe they accidentally broke the Eucharistic fast, don’t feel sufficiently recollected, arrived late, etc. Better that we care about offending God than worrying about what others might think of us if we don’t receive Communion every Mass! Remember my homily: Mass is more than just getting Communion. Taking Communion more seriously will seriously increase the amount of grace we receive when we do receive Him! May God bless you. Father James

Noticias del P.I.T. (Sacerdote en formación)

Tal vez Uds. recuerden algunos de mis comentarios sutiles de mi última homilía dominical, así como mi último artículo donde cité a San Justino Mártir, escrito en el año 151 dC: “Llamamos a este alimento Eucaristía, y a nadie más se le permite participar de esto, excepto aquel que cree que nuestra enseñanza es verdadera y que ha sido lavado en el lavamiento que es para la remisión de los pecados y para la regeneración y por lo tanto está viviendo como Cristo ordenó”. En cada funeral y boda hago un anuncio similar: “Si eres católico y estás debidamente preparado para recibir la Comunión este día, lo que significa que te has confesado durante el último año, formaremos dos filas... Si no eres Católico, te invito a recibir una bendición cruzando los brazos así porque recibir la Comunión en nuestra tradición de fe es una profesión externa de la fe Católica y una aceptación de todo lo que la Iglesia enseña como verdadero. ¡Gracias por respetar nuestra religión!” ¿Por qué decir tal cosa? ¿No es exclusivo? Bueno, sí, si lo es, pero con razón. En primer lugar, ¡no quiero que nadie que en realidad no crea en las enseñanzas de la Iglesia profese inconscientemente lo que en realidad no cree! Para muchos protestantes, la comunión es una expresión de acoger y amar al prójimo, sea quien sea. Para los Católicos, la Comunión es solo eso: una consumación de la comunión con Jesús y Su Cuerpo, Su Esposa, nuestra Madre, la Iglesia. Por lo tanto, si uno no está realmente en comunión con Jesús o su Iglesia, ya sea por obra o creencia, "hay una grave contradicción entre la vida de uno y el significado y el contenido del Sacramento". (La Eucaristía de Feingold) Santo Tomás se refiere a esto como “mentir al sacramento”. La Iglesia llama a esto “sacrilegio”. ¡Esas son palabras fuertes! ¿Por qué? En segundo lugar, porque la Comunión no es solo una acción simbólica: ¡es también Jesús mismo! Contiene lo que significa. Así San Pablo nos dice: “Por tanto, quien coma el pan o beba la copa del Señor indignamente, tendrá que responder por el cuerpo y la sangre del Señor. Una persona debe examinarse a sí misma, y solo entonces comer el pan y beber la copa. Porque cualquiera que come y bebe sin discernir el cuerpo, come y bebe juicio sobre sí mismo. Es por eso que muchos de ustedes están enfermos y débiles, y un número considerable se está muriendo”. (1 Corintios 11:27-29) ¡San Pablo afirma literalmente que las personas se enferman y mueren porque reciben la Comunión cuando no deberían! Esa es una conclusión extraña si la Comunión fuera solo un símbolo del amor de Dios por todas las personas, pero una conclusión perfectamente comprensible si la Comunión es nuestra recepción de Jesucristo crucificado por nuestros pecados.

Piénselo de esta manera: imaginen a un cónyuge al que se le descubre que está engañando a su esposa y luego presume de entrar en el acto marital con su esposa sin disculparse primero. ¡Qué insultante! ¿Rompiste la comunión y buscas la unión corporal sin reconocer primero tu pecado y buscar la reconciliación?! ¡Cuánto más irrespetuoso si le hacemos eso a nuestro Dios infinitamente bueno! Eso es lo que hacemos si nos atrevemos a recibir la Comunión si hemos cometido pecados graves y no hemos ido primero al sacramento de la reconciliación. Por eso la Iglesia nos manda como uno de sus cinco preceptos: “Confesarás tus pecados al menos una vez al año”. (CCC 2042) ¡Jesús quiere perdonarnos nuestros pecados, y nos dio un sacramento para eso también! Como buen padre, Él quiere que nos humillemos, asumamos la responsabilidad de nuestros pecados, los nombremos explícitamente y pidamos perdón, y sólo entonces presumamos de convertirnos en una sola carne con Él. Hay muchas razones por las que alguien no recibiría la Comunión en la Misa, tal vez rompió el ayuno eucarístico sin querer, no se siente lo suficientemente recogido, llegó tarde, etc. Es mejor que nos preocupemos por ofender a Dios que preocuparnos por lo que los demás puedan pensar de nosotros. si no comulgamos cada Misa! Recuerda mi homilía: La Misa es más que simplemente recibir la Comunión. ¡Tomar la Comunión más en serio aumentará seriamente la cantidad de gracia que recibimos cuando lo recibamos a Él! Que Dios los bendiga. Padre James

‘No sólo de pan vive el hombre, sino también de toda palabra que sale de la boca de Dios’.

First Sunday of Lent

Gn 2:7-9; 3:1-7 | Rom 5:12-19 | Mt 4:1-11

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Superbowl Sunday was two weeks ago, and many of us were more likely interested in the commercials than the actual game. After all, companies pay a ton of money to have their products paraded in front of us, and – in theory at least – take the time to make these particular ads memorable and funny. If we can be convinced that we will be better people, or our social outings greater and filled with more laughter, we will buy what they are selling. It's the modern version of the words of the serpent in today's first reading: if you eat this, "you will be like gods"! Today's readings are a reminder that we are all sinners and burdened by being vulnerable to false promises – but also that we are relieved of this burden through one man: Jesus Christ. If we tend to forget that the most important part of our salvation story is that it is full of more grace and forgiveness than we can comprehend, this first Sunday of Lent is a good time to prayerfully ponder this. If God seems far away or distant, let us recall that he loved us so much that he breathed our very life into us, and then gave his only begotten Son to us that we might have life eternally. All he asks in return is for us to accept this gift and follow in his footsteps. Lent is the time to be mindful of grace-filled opportunities that draw us closer to God.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Let's think about these 40 days. In addition to allowing us to grow in understanding of God, this time is also an opportunity to grow in our understanding of how we can be the hands and feet of Jesus in the world and help to build the kingdom right here and now. How can we keep God at the center of our lives and resist worldly temptations to push him aside? Perhaps today's psalm can help us here: Ask for God's mercy, acknowledge our offenses, seek a "clean heart," renew a "steadfast spirit" within us, and ask God to grant us a "willing spirit" to give him praise. And remember Christ's words from the Gospel: Depend on "every word that comes forth from the mouth of God," which is love and mercy.

PRAY Pray today's psalm: "Give me back the joy of your salvation, and a willing spirit sustain in me. O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth shall proclaim your praise."

Care for Creation Corner

“Many things have to change course” Pope Francis, Laudato Si (202)

Pope Francis, in his second encyclical, Laudato Si: On Care for Our Common Home, explores our ecological crisis and its roots in over-consumption and current models of economic development. He calls us to protect and regenerate our common home. He says we do not stand separate from the planet we share with other life; we are intimately related to it and responsible for its care. This truth must be recognized in order to meet the challenges of this critical point in history. What is at stake is nothing less than our children’s rights to a safe climate, clean water and air, sufficient food, physical security, and the wonders of a planet rich with life. We must move beyond an exploitative relationship to our planet towards one based on stewardship and care. While such a transformation has already begun, the gravity of the situation demands greater action. As much as this is a moment of crisis, it is also one of opportunity: we can renew our relationship with our planet so that we can not only sustain ourselves, but also thrive and flourish.

In this Care For Creation Corner we will explore each week ways that we as individuals, families, and as a parish community can do our part to be the solution to the problems. This week let us take a few moments each day to look around us, take notice and be thankful for some of the wonders of God’s Creation.

This year's CMAA theme is We Belong to God. We must work together to ensure all feel included in our community of faith. Through our annual appeal, our parish joins with the other parishes in the diocese to help the poor and vulnerable, form our children in the faith and strengthen vocations. We could not accomplish these and the many other ministries the CMAA supports on our own.

Seventy percent of any amount we raise over our goal will be returned to us, which is a wonderful opportunity for our parish. Please prayerfully reflect on how you can best support our annual appeal and help our parish reach its $141,900 goal. To make a gift, complete and return one of the pledge envelopes in church today.
