19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

At once [Jesus] spoke to them, "Take courage, it is I; do not be afraid." Peter said to him in reply, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water."

Matthew 14:27-28

News from P.I.T. (Priest in Training)

In my junior year of college, I took part in a silent retreat for the first time. This retreat came at the perfect time in my life. For years, I had been thinking about priesthood, but as I got older, I pushed it to the back of my mind. So by the time I got to this retreat, I felt like I had no idea what direction to go.

The priest directing the retreat told us that the reason we were dedicating this time to silence was so that we could hear God's voice. On the last day of the retreat, during a Holy Hour where I told God, "Lord, I've given you these two whole days of silence. Please tell me what my vocation is. I am open to anything." Within a minute, I felt a voice say, "What about diocesan priesthood?"

In the First Reading, Elijah waits in a cave for God to pass by. There are many loud and flashy events that he could have mistaken for God, but it is only in the still, small voice that he recognizes God. For most of us, taking a silent retreat is not an option. But we can take moments of silence throughout our day to listen for the voice of God. Then, we will be better able to hear His voice and recognize where He is working in our lives. But this is just the beginning.

After I felt the voice on the retreat, I was so angry that I stormed out of the chapel (even though I had helped plan the retreat). And in the months that followed, I tried to pretend I hadn't heard that voice.

In the Gospel, Peter also recognizes God passing by, and he asks Jesus to call him to walk on the water. But when he takes his eyes off Jesus because he is distracted by the wind, he begins to sink. So what do we do after we recognize the voice of God?

I came to a point where I realized that I was almost trying to live a double life, feeling in my heart that God was calling me to priesthood while trying to plot my own path. But when I followed my own path, I began to sink. It was only then that I began to rely on God, saying with Peter, "Lord, save me!"

We also need to allow the voice of God we hear in prayer to affect our lives. We all need to ask God: "How are You calling me to follow You?" Next week, we will have a ministry fair where we will have the opportunity to have a taste of the many wonderful ministries our parish offers and discern how God is calling us to serve Him. When we take time to recognize the still, small voice of God in the silence, then we are better able to follow Him even if it means following Him out onto the water.

Noticias del P.I.T. (Sacerdote en formación)

En mi tercer año de universidad, participé en un retiro silencioso por primera vez. Este retiro llegó en el momento perfecto de mi vida. Durante años, había estado pensando en el sacerdocio, pero a medida que pasaba el tiempo, lo aparté de mi mente. Entonces, cuando llegué a este retiro, sentí que no tenía idea de qué dirección tomar.

El sacerdote que dirigía el retiro nos dijo que la razón por la que dedicábamos este tiempo al silencio era para que pudiéramos escuchar la voz de Dios. El último día del retiro, durante una Hora Santa donde le dije a Dios: "Señor, te he dado estos dos días enteros de silencio. Dime cuál es mi vocación. Estoy abierto a cualquier cosa." En un minuto, sentí una voz decir: "¿Qué tal si el sacerdocio diocesano?"

En la Primera Lectura, Elías espera en una cueva a que Dios pase. Hay muchos eventos ruidosos y llamativos que podría haber confundido con Dios, pero es solo en la voz suave y apacible que reconoce a Dios. Para la mayoría de nosotros, hacer un retiro en silencio no es una opción. Pero podemos tomar momentos de silencio a lo largo de nuestro día para escuchar la voz de Dios. Entonces, seremos más capaces de escuchar Su voz y reconocer dónde Él está obrando en nuestras vidas. Pero esto es solo el principio.

Después de sentir la voz en el retiro, estaba tan enojado que salí de la capilla (a pesar de que había ayudado a planificar el retiro). Y en los meses que siguieron, traté de fingir que no había escuchado esa voz.

En el Evangelio, Pedro también reconoce a Dios que pasa y le pide a Jesús que lo llame a caminar sobre el agua. Pero cuando quita los ojos de Jesús porque lo distrae el viento, comienza a hundirse. Entonces, ¿qué hacemos después de reconocer la voz de Dios?

Llegué a un punto en el que me di cuenta de que casi estaba tratando de vivir una doble vida, sintiendo en mi corazón que Dios me estaba llamando al sacerdocio mientras trataba de trazar mi propio camino. Pero cuando seguí mi propio camino, comencé a hundirme. Fue solo entonces que comencé a confiar en Dios, diciendo con Pedro: "¡Señor, sálvame!"

También debemos permitir que la voz de Dios que escuchamos en oración afecte nuestras vidas. Todos necesitamos preguntarle a Dios: "¿Cómo me llamas a seguirte?" La próxima semana, tendremos una feria de ministerios donde tendremos la oportunidad de probar los maravillosos ministerios que ofrece nuestra parroquia y discernir cómo Dios nos está llamando a servirle. Cuando nos tomamos el tiempo para reconocer la voz suave y apacible de Dios en el silencio, entonces podemos seguirlo mejor, incluso si eso significa seguirlo en el agua.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Unlike with our other important relationships, God isn't exactly someone we can meet for coffee and look into his eyes while having a conversation. Whether we talk to God in our mind or out loud, we recognize that even with a good prayer life it can sometimes be difficult to cultivate and maintain a relationship with God. Doubters and unbelievers are quick to remind us how impossible it is to believe what we cannot see or hear, but today's readings also remind us that God doesn't speak to us as another human being would. Maybe he doesn't speak with the booming voice of a preacher or a politician, and maybe he doesn't write direct messages for us in the sky or sand, but God does speak. Perhaps, like Elijah, we tend to expect God to communicate with huge gestures, such as strong wind that crushes rocks, or earthquakes or fires; but we hear today that God spoke to Elijah in a "tiny whispering sound." It's not unlike a very good teacher who doesn't need to raise her voice to get her students' attention when they lose focus – she has their respect and simply needs to speak normally and calmly and the students quiet down, pay attention, and listen. When we still our hearts and minds and listen, in prayer, let us be confident we will hear God's voice.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Perhaps in order to hear God's voice in our lives we need to fine-tune our "hearing." First, how can we hear if we do not have faith? Jesus called Peter out of the boat and into stormy waters, and though he was able to walk on water for a time, Peter began to sink because he became afraid. Doubt or fear can hamper our ability to listen to the Lord clearly; don't let it cloud your love for Christ! Second, we must keep in mind the many ways God speaks to us: his Word (the Bible), the writings of the saints and Church Fathers, our Catholic Tradition, other people God has placed in our lives, and the "tiny whispering sound" we might hear only within our heart. Stay attuned to God's voice; the rewards are heavenly.

INVITATION Ignatian spirituality – meditations, prayers, and contemplative practices – may help us recognize and truly hear the still small voice of God in our lives. The Daily Examen is a prayerful reflection on the events of the day which might help us identify the movement of the Holy Spirit in those moments. Give it a try.

Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

Begins in September!

Are you interested in becoming Catholic or learning more about the process to become Catholic? Or are you curious about what initiation for adults means?

Our blessed Lord Jesus Christ said to Matthew "Follow me" and he rose and followed him. For Catholics, we respond in a similar way. The Christian way of life and becoming Catholic goes through a process of initiation, which is falling in love with Jesus and becoming His disciple. Through weekly meetings, we strive to help people learn how to respond to the prompting of God in their lives.

The best way to learn is by doing Catholic things and hanging around other Catholics. The way to practice being a Catholic and enter into this process is through entering a way of life, as an apprentice learns from a master and that master's community.

Our blessed Lord Jesus is our master and becoming Catholic is a lot like being His apprentices. We call this process the Order of Christian Initiation for Adults often referred to as OCIA. It involves encountering the Word of God through the liturgies and personal study, engaging in a vibrant community at Our Lady of Mercy, worship with fellow believers in Christ, learning to pray and be of service to others.

Meetings will take the form of classes on Monday evenings led by our pastor, Fr. Michael Kearney and parochial vicar, Fr. Frank Pusateri and an invitation to fellowship gatherings on Thursday evenings starting in September.

If you are interested in being Catholic or know of someone who is interested, take the next step in responding to God's call by emailing: OCIA@olmercy.com

Hearing And Observing

In Monday's Gospel for the Vigil of the Assumption of Mary, a woman from the crowd gives a shout out to Jesus' mother; because mothers surely deserve some acknowledgment for the virtue of their children! And Jesus says that actually, those who hear and observe the word of God should be praised. At first, Jesus' words may seem dismissive of his mother, as if he is saying that she is not blessed. But we can hear his words as, "Yes, because she heard the word of God and observed it perfectly. And so, blessed are all those who do the same!"

Mary is certainly privileged in many ways, but her true beauty and virtue is that she received all that came from God and every thought, word, action, and desire of hers was in alignment with His will. Today, as we celebrate one of the Marian dogmas of the Church, her Assumption into Heaven, we praise the true blessedness of the Mother of God. Blessed is she who heard the word of God, received it, assented to it, observed it, and never drew back, through all the vicissitudes and confusions and heartache and uncertainty and sorrow that she faced in this life! She remained faithful to her fiat at the Annunciation through the misunderstandings of Joseph and her neighbors, through the threats of the Pharisees against her son, through the lack of understanding of the disciples and the crowds who followed Jesus, all the way to the Cross and beyond. She never wavered.

Throughout her life, we see the strength that she draws from her deep faith and unwavering hope. Even at the Cross, she stood. She did not look away from the worst cruelty and the deepest heartache of a mother we can imagine. She stood, suffering FOR her son, and WITH her son, offering him and herself to the Father. Co-suffering. Co-redeeming.

"She conceived, brought forth and nourished Christ. She presented Him to the Father in the temple, and was united with Him by compassion as He died on the Cross. In this singular way she cooperated by her obedience, faith, hope and burning charity in the work of the Saviour in giving back supernatural life to souls. Wherefore she is our mother in the order of grace."

This maternity of Mary in the order of grace began with the consent which she gave in faith at the Annunciation and which she sustained without wavering beneath the cross, and lasts until the eternal fulfillment of all the elect. Taken up to heaven she did not lay aside this salvific duty, but by her constant intercession continued to bring us the gifts of eternal salvation." (Lumen Gentium, # 61, 62)

Let's ponder these words from Vatican II today and remember that when her life on earth was finished, her body was not left in a tomb to decay. Rather, she was lifted body and soul into Heavenly glory, to continue her motherhood of the whole Body of Christ! Mary, our Mother, pray for us.
