News from S.I.T. (Seminarian in Training)

It is with great sadness, that I must say my goodbye to Our Lady of Mercy. I have been at OLM for two years, and this experience has been beautiful. I shared my sentiments at some of the Masses last week, but not fully at all of them. This was because during the first two times I said goodbye at Mass I was extremely emotional. I could hardly say anything at the 4pm Mass on Saturday.

What I truly wanted to share was that when I first came to the parish I had completed four years of college seminary. I completed these first four years in Minnesota at St. John Vianney Seminary. I am extremely grateful for this time because I grew tremendously. However, absent from the experience in Minnesota was a connection to the diocese that I was studying for and preparing myself to serve. During my time of discernment, one of the things that filled my heart as I considered the priesthood was my desire for parish life. Thus, leaving the parish to study for four years in Minnesota was extremely tough for me! Although it was, in my opinion, a necessary step for me. Many of you may have heard the phrase, "healed people heal people". When I entered seminary, I didn't think that the Lord needed to do any healing in my life. However, during my time there The Lord pointed out places where he invited me to experience greater joy, peace, and love, even if I didn't realize it at first because I was not bleeding out or suffering excruciatingly. In many ways, he used my time in Minnesota to prepare me to be sent out into parish life.

Thus, getting the opportunity to serve you at the parish and share in your times of joy, suffering, and grief has been a privilege. Know that during my time here you have been loved, and know that during my time here I have felt loved. I will keep you in my prayers, especially during the upcoming summer program that I am doing in Mexico City. If the Lord allows it and if you are able, it would be a wonderful thing to see you all at my deaconate and priesthood ordinations.

Please keep me in your prayers and don't be a stranger if you ever see me around!

Noticias del S.I.T. (Seminarista en formación)

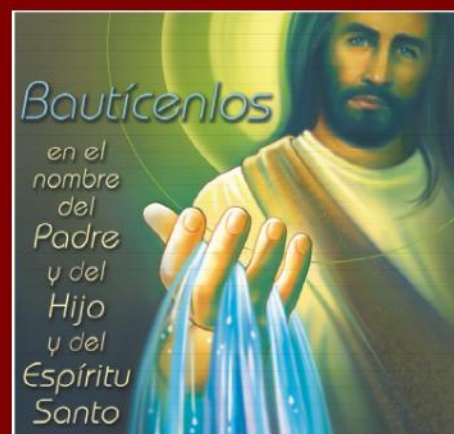

Con gran tristeza debo despedirme de Our Lady of Mercy. Llevo dos años en OLM y esta experiencia ha sido hermosa. Compartí mis sentimientos en algunas de las Misas de la semana pasada, pero no completamente en todas. Esto se debió a que durante las dos primeras veces que me despedí en Misa estaba extremadamente emocional. Casi no pude decir nada en la Misa de las 4 de la tarde del sábado.

Lo que realmente quería compartir era que cuando llegué por primera vez a la parroquia había completado cuatro años de seminario universitario. Completé estos primeros cuatro años en Minnesota en el Seminario St. John Vianney. Estoy sumamente agradecida por este tiempo porque crecí enormemente. Sin embargo, en la experiencia en Minnesota estuvo ausente una conexión con la diócesis para la que estaba estudiando y preparándome para servir. Durante mi tiempo de discernimiento, una de las cosas que llenó mi corazón al considerar el sacerdocio fue mi deseo de vivir la vida parroquial. Por lo tanto, ¡dejar la parroquia para estudiar durante cuatro años en Minnesota fue extremadamente difícil para mí! Aunque fue, en mi opinión, un paso necesario para mí. Es posible que muchos de ustedes hayan escuchado la frase “las personas sanadas sanan a las personas”. Cuando entré al seminario, no pensé que el Señor necesitaba hacer alguna sanación en mi vida. Sin embargo, durante mi estancia allí, el Señor señaló lugares donde me invitó a experimentar mayor gozo, paz y amor, aunque al principio no me di cuenta porque no me desagraba ni sufría insoportablemente. En muchos sentidos, él utilizó mi tiempo en Minnesota para prepararme para ser enviado a la vida parroquial.

Por lo tanto, ha sido un privilegio tener la oportunidad de servirles en la parroquia y compartir sus momentos de alegría, sufrimiento y dolor. Sepan que durante mi estancia aquí han sido queridos, y sepan que durante mi estancia aquí me he sentido querido. Los mantendré en mis oraciones, especialmente durante el próximo programa de verano que estoy realizando en la Ciudad de México. Si el Señor lo permite y si pueden, sería maravilloso verlos a todos en mis ordenaciones de diaconado y sacerdocio.

¡Por favor manténganme en sus oraciones y no sean un extraño si alguna vez me ven por ahí!

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

Dt 4:32-34, 39-40 | Rom 8:14-17 | Mt 28:16-20

GLORY BE TO the Father.

AND TO

the Son.

AND TO THE Holy Spirit.

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

Today is an opportunity to reflect on and celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity: One God, two natures (Jesus is fully human and fully divine), and three divine persons. Whenever I think about this feast, I am reminded of some wise words I heard once from a professor, although I am paraphrasing: It's not necessary to try to describe in theological terms what God is, for no matter what we say it will be inadequate to the reality of the ultimate grandeur of God. What is important, and what affects people day to day, is talking about who God is, and how God is. And so this Trinity Sunday is a day to reiterate that which is most fundamental to our understanding and belief: God is love. Not just God is loving, or God loves, but God is love itself. He is a continual outpouring of selfless love - agape is the Greek word - which brought forth creation, and all creatures to share in it. It is a communion of love by which and for which we were created; we are meant to emulate and live that same relational communion of love with one another.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

As human beings, we simply do not have the ability to live our baptismal call perfectly - to love one another as God loves us. What we do have is our Triune God who gives us the grace to strive for perfection as in Christ, but who, in the end, is the one who perfects us in him. "[We] must keep his statutes and commandments," Moses has said. And Paul gives us hope in doing so as he tells us that "The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God." The Lord is here with us, helping us and advocating for us. And in our mission of discipleship, we have the promise from Jesus, "Behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age." We give thanks and praise to the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for all these gifts and so much more.

PRAY All Christian prayer is Trinitarian in nature: we pray to the Father, through the Son, in/by the power of the Spirit. Some prayers are very specifically written to include the Trinity/Godhead by name. The most recognizable one is this doxology, or the Glory Be: Glory Be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Add it to your daily prayers.

Why does Jesus give himself to us as food and drink?

Jesus gives himself to us in the Eucharist as spiritual nourishment because he loves us. By eating the Body and drinking the Blood of Christ in the Eucharist, we become united to the person of Christ through his humanity. "Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him" (Jn 6:56). In being united to the humanity of Christ, we are at the same time united to his divinity. Our mortal and corruptible natures are transformed by being joined to the source of life.

what is the Eucharist?

In the celebration of the Eucharist, bread and wine become the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit and the instrumentality of the priest. The whole Christ is truly present -- body, blood, soul, and divinity -- under the appearances of bread and wine, the glorified Christ who rose from the dead. This is what the Church means when she speaks of the "Real Presence" of Christ in the Eucharist.
