

OUR LADY of MERCY
CATHOLIC CHURCH

September 15, 2024
24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus asked them,

“Who do you say that I am?”

Peter said to him in reply,

“You are the Christ.”

Mark 8:29

News from Priest in Residence

Brothers and Sisters in the Lord,

In our Gospel this Sunday, our Lord asks his disciples, "Who do you say that I am?" After following our Lord, seeing him work miracles, healing the sick, and getting to know him on a deep, personal level, Peter can declare, on behalf of the Apostles (and thus the Church), "You are the Christ." We too are called to have the same deep, personal relationship with our Lord- to grow in holiness! We too are called to go out to our community, our work, our school, all those we meet, and declare that Jesus is the Christ, the way to the Father. One way we can grow in holiness, to grow closer to our Lord, is through our suffering. Christ tells us that if we wish to be his disciples, then we must take up our cross and follow him. If Christ suffered, then we also are called to do the same. Where Christ has gone, we hope to follow, if we are faithful to him.

Our Lord's journey back to the Father in heaven took him first to the Cross. We should not be surprised then, that our journey to heaven will take us down a similar path. Our path can take several different twists and turns, and we don't always know where we are going, but as long as we take that walk with the Lord and trust in his providential care for us and stay close to the Church and the Sacraments, we know it will lead us to our true home, which is heaven!

I also wanted to take the opportunity to formally introduce myself to you and tell you who I am. My name is Father William Vagenas and I am the new resident priest here at Our Lady of Mercy. I (along with my dog, Hope) moved into the rectory about a month ago. I continue to be overwhelmed with the warm and gracious welcome I have received in that time. In particular, I want to thank Father Michael and Father Frank. They have been very accommodating and helpful during this transition.

A little about me...I grew up in Hinsdale at St. Isaac Jogues where I attended second through eighth grade. After graduating high school I entered St. John Vianney College Seminary and then continued studies at Mundelein Seminary. I was ordained in 2012 and served at St. Michael in Wheaton. After several years away from ministry in the diocese, I was asked to move here to assist with Masses and Confessions during the week and to assist with Masses on Sundays at St. Anne in Oswego. While I maintain responsibilities outside the parish, I look forward to being with you all for the coming months as, together, we journey closer to God.

I look forward to meeting so many of you in the coming weeks. Know of my prayers for all of you. Please continue to keep me in your prayers.

May our Lady of Mercy intercede for us all!

Fr. Vagenas

OUR LADY OF MERCY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Noticias del Sacerdote en la Casa Parroquial

Hermanos y hermanas en el Señor, En nuestro Evangelio de este domingo, nuestro Señor pregunta a sus discípulos: “¿Quién dice la gente que soy yo?” Después de seguir a nuestro Señor, verlo obrar milagros, sanar a los enfermos y conocerlo a un nivel profundo y personal, Pedro puede declarar, en nombre de los Apóstoles (y por lo tanto de la Iglesia), “Tú eres el Cristo”. También nosotros estamos llamados a tener la misma relación profunda y personal con nuestro Señor: ¡a crecer en santidad! También nosotros estamos llamados a salir a nuestra comunidad, nuestro trabajo, nuestra escuela, a todos aquellos que conocemos, y declarar que Jesús es el Cristo, el camino al Padre. Una forma en que podemos crecer en santidad, para acercarnos más a nuestro Señor, es a través de nuestro sufrimiento. Cristo nos dice que si queremos ser sus discípulos, entonces debemos tomar nuestra cruz y seguirlo. Si Cristo sufrió, entonces también nosotros estamos llamados a hacer lo mismo. Donde Cristo ha ido, esperamos seguirlo, si le somos fieles.

El viaje de nuestro Señor de regreso al Padre en el cielo lo llevó primero a la Cruz. No debemos sorprendernos, entonces, de que nuestro viaje al cielo nos lleve por un camino similar. Nuestro camino puede tomar diferentes giros y vueltas, y no siempre sabemos a dónde vamos, pero mientras caminemos con el Señor y confiemos en su cuidado providencial por nosotros y nos mantengamos cerca de la Iglesia y los Sacramentos, sabemos que nos llevará a nuestro verdadero hogar, que es el cielo.

También quería aprovechar la oportunidad para presentarme formalmente y decirles quién soy. Mi nombre es Padre William Vagenas y soy el nuevo sacerdote residente aquí en Our Lady of Mercy. Me mudé (junto con mi perro, Hope) a la rectoría hace aproximadamente un mes. Sigo abrumado por la cálida y amable bienvenida que he recibido en este tiempo. En particular, quiero agradecer al Padre Michael y al Padre Frank. Ellos han sido muy complacientes y serviciales durante esta transición.

Un poco sobre mí... Crecí en Hinsdale en St. Isaac Jogues, donde asistí desde el segundo hasta el octavo grado. Después de graduarme de la escuela secundaria, ingresé al Seminario Universitario St. John Vianney y luego continué mis estudios en el Seminario Mundelein. Fui ordenado en el 2012 y serví en St. Michael en Wheaton. Después de varios años alejado del ministerio en la diócesis, me pidieron que me mudara aquí para ayudar con las Misas y Confesiones durante la semana y para ayudar con las Misas los domingos en St. Anne en Oswego. Si bien mantengo responsabilidades fuera de la parroquia, espero estar con todos ustedes durante los próximos meses mientras, juntos, nos acercamos a Dios.

Espero conocer a muchos de ustedes en las próximas semanas. Sepan que oro por todos ustedes. Por favor, sigan manteniéndome en sus oraciones.

¡Que nuestra Señora de la Misericordia interceda por todos nosotros!

Padre Vagenas

September 2024

God Blessed the Seventh Day and Made it Holy

"I don't have time for this!" These were the words that were on replay in my head as I drove from Joliet to Mundelein Seminary a few weeks ago. I was headed to a 3-1/2 day regional retreat for all the bishops from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin. In my justified view, my saturated work schedule simply did not leave any room for this spiritual "indulgence." Yet, motivated mostly by duty, I checked into my room and asked the Lord to help me check my bad attitude at the door.

As God would have it, my prayer was immediately answered. We were introduced to our retreat director, Reverend Ron Rolheiser, OMI. You may know of him. He is a Catholic priest, theology professor and prolific author. You might be familiar with a number of his books on spirituality, the most popular entitled "The Holy Longing."

One of his thought-provoking talks was about the Sabbath. He reminded us that the Sabbath is a day of rest and religious observance that is rooted in the biblical creation narrative, where God rested on the seventh day after creating the world. Henceforth, by God resting on the seventh day, this day of rest was declared and ordained for everyone, forever.

Practically, in Judaism, the Sabbath begins at sunset on Friday and ends at nightfall on Saturday, during which work is prohibited. The Sabbath is devoted to rest, prayer, and family. For Catholics, we honor the seventh day on Sunday, commemorating the resurrection of Jesus, with a focus on worship and rest. Even the word "Sabbatical" comes from the word "Sabbath."

Father Rolheiser tested us: "How many of your flock truly take Sundays as a day of worship and rest?" "How many of them have replaced worship and rest with work, shopping, sports, entertainment or traveling?" Then he questioned, "Bishops, how many of your Sundays include not only worship, but also some rest? Hmmm?"

Father provided us with some simple and clear guidance of what sabbath time should look like in Catholic life and culture. I found it enlightening, and so I'll share:

1. Rest: We live in a 24/7 culture. We are busy all the time. If God rested on the seventh day, then so too shall we who are made in His image and likeness. We each need to take a day to rest and recharge our batteries.

2. Change it up: Sunday is a special day to stop all the ordinary things in our lives and do something unordinary. The Sabbath is an invitation to do something that you do not do during the week. And what we do or don't do will be different for each of us depending on our different lives and circumstances. For example, if you work in an office all week, it might be good on Sunday to go outside, cut the grass and work in your garden. Whereas if you are a farmer, you might prefer one day away from your fields, lawn, and garden to instead sit inside and read a book. The point is to stop what we typically do throughout the week and take one day to do something unordinary, or even extraordinary.
3. Celebrate: Sabbath is a time for special celebrations. Years ago, the Sabbath was the day to stop normal work, take a bath, put on your best clothes, go to mass, come home, and eat a big dinner at the dining room table with family and friends. These days, we may not dress up in fancy clothes and our meals might be simpler or taken at a restaurant, yet we can all make sure that attending Sunday mass is always part of our Sunday celebrations.

Do you ever echo my words, "I have no time for this!" It is all too easy to use that excuse in the busyness of our weeks. But then we risk becoming workaholic, burned out machines who have no "off-switch" or downtime. At the end of my 3-1/2 days of sabbath time at the bishops' retreat, I thanked God for leading me to the precious time to pray, reflect, sleep, read, learn, walk around the grounds, and socialize.

We all need – in fact, instinctively crave- sabbath time! So please join me by reflecting on your own life and asking yourself, "How do I honor the Sabbath?" You may realize your Sundays still need to include some work, shopping, sports, entertainment or traveling. But please don't let those activities replace participating in Sunday Mass. Treat yourself, every Sunday, to the greatest gift Jesus gave us: the Eucharist. Nourished and refreshed by the Eucharist and celebrating our faith as a community, we can be energized to go out living our faith in the world on the road to salvation.
