

OUR LADY of MERCY
CATHOLIC CHURCH

THE FEAST
of Our lady of Mercy

News from P.I.T. (Pastor in Training)

Have you ever prayed the Litany of Loreto? This litany is asking for the intercession of our Blessed Mother through her various titles, which are grounded in Scripture and Tradition. These titles are beautiful because they reveal the great gift of Mary through her various names. Yet, as you look through the titles, you see that they are all given to her because of her Son, Jesus Christ.

For example, let's look at the title "Mary, Seat of Wisdom." This comes from the verse in Matthew's Gospel when the Wise Men come to seek Christ. Scripture says, "Going into the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him" (Matthew 2:11). Jesus was on Mary's lap, hence seat, when the Wise Men worshiped the Lord. Mary is the ultimate seat of wisdom because her son, Jesus, sat on her lap!

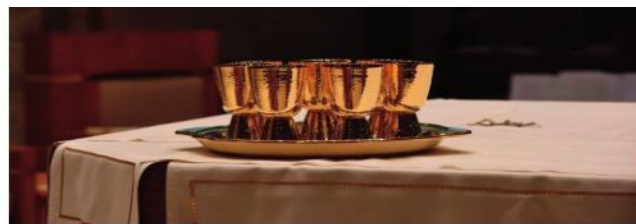

"Mary, Mother of all Grace", is usually the title given to the image of Mary standing on the world while crushing the head of the serpent (which fulfills the prophecy in Genesis 3:15). This image is actually in our adoration chapel. In the Church's understanding and tradition, Mary is crushing the head of the serpent while Jesus is conceived in her womb. She is able to crush the head of the serpent because of her son Jesus Christ.

This leads us to our Feast Day of "Our Lady of Mercy." I'm sure our Protestant brothers and sisters in Christ will cringe hearing this title, thinking that we are worshipping Mary as God. That is not the case. Mary is given this title, as seen in the image on the wall of our parish, because Mercy itself sits on her lap. From his birth, even to his death, Jesus is depicted in Mary's arms- such as in Michelangelo's great artwork of the Pieta. Mary's mercy is founded on Christ her son, the source of love that is reaching down to save us from our sins.

One last image is seen in the book of Revelation, where there is a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars (Revelation 12:1). Mary continues in the tradition of the Church to represent the moon. In darkest times, she reflects the sunlight of the true Son of God. How often do we need Mary's guidance to make our way to her Son, the Light of the World!

I believe that as we celebrate Mary, Our Lady of Mercy, we too can follow the example set forth in her titles. May we, like Mary, reflect the love of Jesus Christ, share all wisdom, grace & mercy, and reflect God's love to those that we meet!

Noticias del P.I.T. (Párroco en Formación)

¿Alguna vez han rezado la Letanía de Loreto? Esta letanía pide la intercesión de nuestra Santísima Madre a través de sus diversos títulos, que se basan en las Escrituras y la Tradición. Estas advocaciones son hermosas porque revelan el gran don de María a través de sus diversos nombres. Sin embargo, al examinar los títulos, se ve que todos se le dan a ella por su Hijo, Jesucristo.

Por ejemplo, veamos el título “María, Trono de la Sabiduría”. Esto proviene del versículo del Evangelio de Mateo cuando los Reyes Magos vienen a buscar a Cristo. La Escritura dice: “Al entrar en la casa, vieron al niño con María, su madre, y postrándose lo adoraron” (Mateo 2:11). Jesús estaba en el regazo de María, por lo tanto, asiento, cuando los Reyes Magos adoraron al Señor. ¡María es el trono máximo de la sabiduría porque su hijo, Jesús, se sentó en su regazo!

“María, Madre de la Divina Gracia”, es el título que se le da habitualmente a la imagen de María parada sobre el mundo mientras aplasta la cabeza de la serpiente (lo que cumple la profecía del Génesis 3:15). Esta imagen se encuentra en nuestra capilla de adoración. En la comprensión y tradición de la Iglesia, María está aplastando la cabeza de la serpiente mientras Jesús es concebido en su vientre. Ella es capaz de aplastar la cabeza de la serpiente gracias a su hijo Jesucristo.

Esto nos lleva a nuestra Fiesta de “Nuestra Señora de la Misericordia”. Estoy seguro de que nuestros hermanos y hermanas en Cristo que son protestantes se estremecerán al oír este título, pensando que estamos adorando a María como Dios. Ese no es el caso. María recibe este título, como se ve en la imagen en la pared de nuestra parroquia, porque la Misericordia misma se sienta en su regazo. Desde su nacimiento, incluso hasta su muerte, Jesús está representado en los brazos de María, como en la gran obra de arte de Miguel Ángel, la Piedad. La misericordia de María se basa en Cristo, su hijo, la fuente del amor que desciende para salvarnos de nuestros pecados.

Una última imagen se ve en el libro del Apocalipsis, donde hay una mujer vestida del sol, con la luna bajo sus pies y sobre su cabeza una corona de doce estrellas (Apocalipsis 12:1). María continúa la tradición de la Iglesia de representar a la luna. En los tiempos más oscuros, ella refleja la luz del sol del verdadero Hijo de Dios. ¡Cuántas veces necesitamos la guía de María para abrirnos camino hacia su Hijo, la Luz del Mundo!

Creo que, al celebrar a María, Nuestra Señora de la Misericordia, también nosotros podemos seguir el ejemplo establecido en sus advocaciones. Que, como María, reflejemos el amor de Jesucristo, compartamos toda la sabiduría, gracia y misericordia, y reflejemos el amor de Dios a quienes conocemos

Padre Michael

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

How often does ambition get in the way of holiness? In today's Gospel, Jesus foretells his death, and the Apostles respond by arguing over who among them is most important. But the Apostles' aspirations and motivation stand in stark contrast to the humility necessary for discipleship; their lack of understanding signals a need for instruction. "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all," Jesus explains. Those who follow him are to be humble peacemakers who serve others instead of seeking power and accolades. We are to model Jesus, who humbled himself to the point of death on a cross! (Cf., Phil 2:8) Having goals and ambitions is not a bad thing, but they must grow from the seeds of virtue (humility, charity, faith, and hope) rather than as spores of sin (pride, opportunism, and greed). As James wrote in our second reading, "Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice. But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits." Seeking to serve, rather than be served, then, is the hallmark of faith well-lived.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

"Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me." The path of humility Jesus models for us is not just one of compassion and kindness, but one which allows us to grow in relationship with the Lord. As we serve and attend to each other, we embrace God who dwells within each of us and in whose image we are made. We become more like him in following his example. If we cultivate the virtues of humility, charity, faith, and hope in ourselves by practicing them with our families and friends, we will become souls steeped in God's peace. Furthermore, our peace will be unshakeable because it will not be based on our emotions but on our faith in God's love. "Behold, God is my helper," our responsorial psalm declares. "The Lord sustains my life." If I am convinced that God sustains my life, what do I have to fear?

PRAY We can't live in peace if we don't turn to God to guide us in peace. This week take 15 minutes every day to pray for peace - in your life, in your family, in our nation, and in the world. When you hear news of war and conflict, take a minute to recite a prayer for peace in the hearts of all those involved.
